If institutions, bureaucracy, governments, policies, values, or culture get in the way of creating Citizen Delight, then they must be changed.

Kubair Shirazee

Change is an I conversation
before it is a WE conversation.

I conversation

I conversation
WE conversation.

2010

Two people self-organised with a common purpose to address social ills and evils that plague our world and our people.

Institutions, bureaucracy, governments,
policies have failed to create Citizen Delight.

Kubair Shirazee

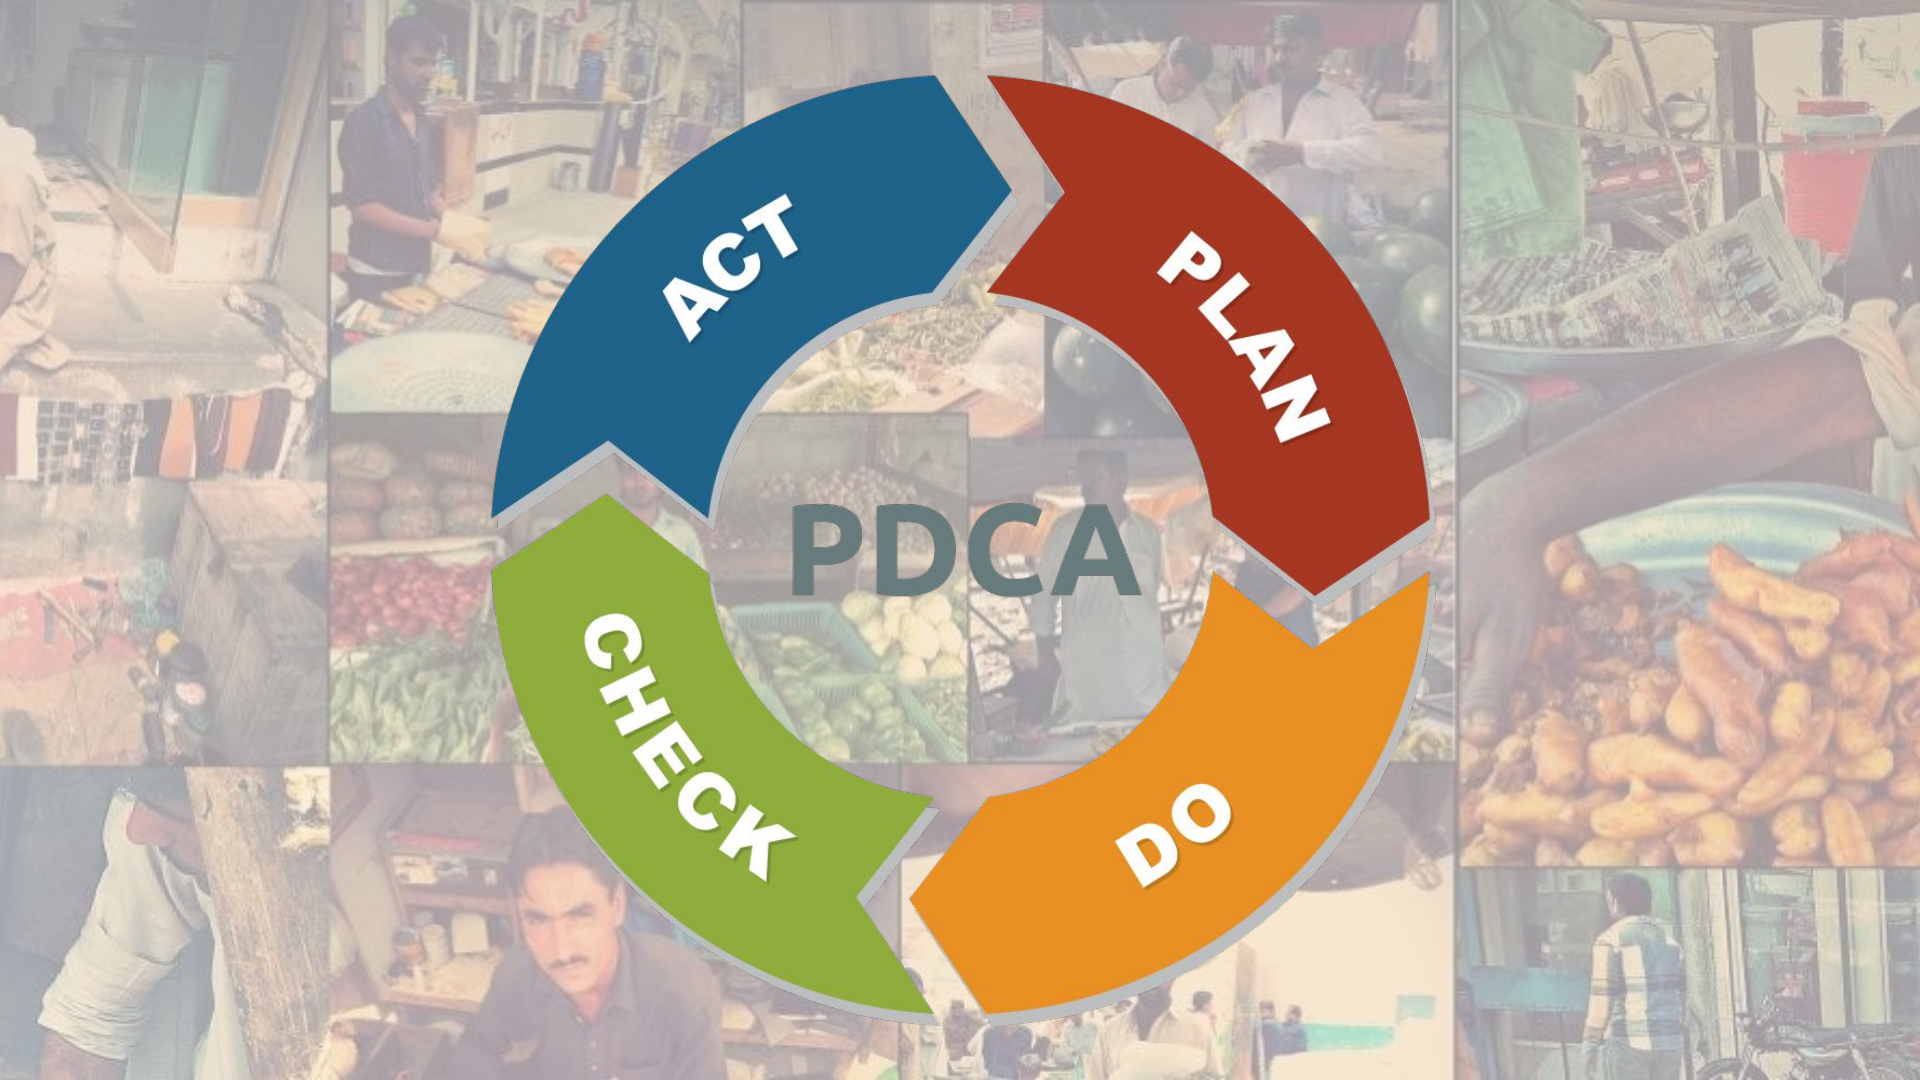

Address societal transformation Bottom up

How might we better enable marginalised individuals and communities to create their own narrative of change, and with that reduce dependence on institutions to bring about needed change for a better tomorrow?
